Exploring, Learning and Understanding Music
Through Sensory Perception, Movement and Fun

PARENTS OPEN EVENING

Thursday 6 July: 8.00 - 9.30 p.m.

Leave the children at home, come along and see what we do and how it works

- Discover how we teach music literacy to children BEFORE they start primary school
- See how much FUN it is to learn music this way
- Find out why this approach is so important to older children (upper primary and even secondary)
- See how we teach babies and even pre-birth ..!
- Find out the other significant educational benefits
- Open to current and prospective parents

Helpful (but not essential) if you book so we can cater for numbers
